

To construct an integrated and solid theological framework in the Canadian context, we must begin to define our lives from the inside out, to take our lives and struggles seriously rather than cut off the roots we need to claim as genuine theological material.

Marilyn Legge
from The Grace of Difference

Questions for Reflection

- ✚ In what ways am I doing theology in my own context?
- ✚ What factors are influencing how I do theology?
- ✚ With whom am I doing theology?
- ✚ Whose voices are part of my theological endeavour?
- ✚ Whose voices are not?
- ✚ What influences are creating hope, joy, despair, fear in my community?
- ✚ Where and how are these influences coming into my theological reflection?
- ✚ What images, metaphors, stories help to describe my theology?

PHOTOS BY GAIL ALLAN, GILLIAN BARFOOT AND MARION KIRKWOOD