Healing Waters: Churches Working to End Violence Against Women by Carol Penner
English only, 164 pages, cost of shipping

This practical handbook includes advice on responding to a woman who has been abused; handouts on abuse, myths and shelters; workshop, Bible study and workshop resources; an historical overview of violence against women; theological and biblical background; and church and community action ideas.

Some Women Amazed Us by Bernice Santor
English only, 114 pages, $27

Written by a former Council member, this book features twelve Bible study sessions with named and unnamed Biblical women. Colour prints of five quilts accompany monologues in the voice of the woman they depict.

Riding the Waves
For members of WICC's Network: $35 suggested donation per year

This ecumenical newsmagazine focuses on justice issues that affect women in church and society; spirituality; FLC Prayer concerns and World Day of Prayer.

December 6 Liturgy
Free

WICC prepares an annual liturgy of remembrance and hope for December 6, Canada's Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women. Available November 1.
